Their Story and Ours

April 30, 2017
EASTER 3

There is something special about the story of the two on their way to Emmaus. Maybe it is because it is our story, too. We are on our way. We have our hopes and dreams for a better world, a better and happier life. We are always searching for something more. We struggle through dark and discouraging times. We too need our faith, our hope and love made new, and to recognize that the Lord is in our midst.

The story begins with the tragic truth that Jesus is dead. His followers had to face this reality. All their hopes and dreams, all they longed for was invested in Him, and now all was lost. It is a story of grief, frustration and despair. But that is all the past; keep in mind how the story ends. That very evening, it is all changed. Their sadness and weariness is changed into joy, excitement and renewed hope. They had to return to Jerusalem to tell the others that they had seen the Lord. The good news could not wait until morning. "We have seen the Lord," they told Peter. And Peter responded, "Yes, so have we!"

We are invited to reflect on the response of the disciples to the death and resurrection of the Lord. We hear their stories over and over again to understand their struggle to recognize the Risen Lord in their midst, and how they went about telling others the good news. The stories are repeated to help us come to an awareness, a renewed faith that the Lord is alive and well; that we can know Him in the breaking of the bread. Awareness is really grace; a free gift from God. Like those disciples on the road who met the Lord, we find the courage and strength, the faith necessary to manage the trials and disappointments, the heartaches and sadness that life has to offer. We finally learn to let go and let God be God for us. Once we have known the Risen Lord in our midst, we cannot help but bring Him to others.

As Jesus' faithful followers, we carry with us the marks of the Lord's Risen life. Through our own pain and suffering, we are able to touch the lives of others by our compassion and love. Through our experiences of darkness and doubt, we offer light and hope to others who struggle. By our awareness of the Lord in our lives, we can comfort and console those who are grieving, depressed, filled with sorrows, or who find life meaningless. By dying to selfishness and sin, we bring new life others. What a challenge we face each day!

The Easter story is not about a dead body coming back to life. It is about the power of God to overcome all death, all sadness, all suffering and pain. It is about God's power to raise Jesus and in Him, all of us. It is about Jesus risen in our hearts, walking with us on the way as we journey to the Father. It is about the Lord of life living through us, with us and in us such as we are with all of our foolishness, humanness and sin.

The message of Easter is that life conquers death, and only God can do that. You and I are called to be people of faith. We are to live this new Risen Life each day.

Experience the Simplicity of Taizé Prayer

Wed., May 3, 7:00pm, in the Historic Chapel. Celebrate the Easter season with prayer and songs in the style of Taizé: sung meditative music (short simple songs with repetitive refrains), scripture readings and time for reflective silence. Feel free to bring a cushion to sit on the floor, as much of the Taizé prayer experience is about being relaxed and comfortable. All are welcome. INFO: Beth Fisher, 301-972-3406 or ljfisher57@verizon.net

Adult Ushers Needed - Could This Mean YOU?

Due to graduations, retirements and moving, some of our ushers have left the ministry. We urgently need adult ushers at the 8:45am Mass. Ushers serve only once every three weeks. Training is provided. If you are interested or simply want to learn more about this ministry, please contact Carl Pocratsky, cpocratsky@yahoo.com.

Help Prepare the Feast

Do you like getting things in order? Do you like preparing for guests? If so, consider joining the ministry of Sacristan. Sacristans prepare before Mass by setting up vessels, lighting candles, etc., to get ready for all who come to share in the Eucharistic feast. This can be done as a family ministry. Serve once every three weeks. Training provided. Help is needed at most Mass times. INFO: Christine Jeffrey, cjeffrey@strose.com

SERVICE / SERVICIO

Join in the Fun!!

Are you looking for a way to meet new people at St. Rose? Are you looking for a way to serve the Lord in our parish community? Consider becoming a Fiesta Team Leader! (For those who don't know about Fiesta, this is a fabulous Parish FUNdraiser that also builds community and serves those in need! Fiesta is held on the last Saturday in September, but we need leaders now!) We really need help with service in all areas, but particularly with: Ticket Sales, Set Up and Clean Up, Parking, Country Store, World Village, Grand Prize Raffle, Flea Market and Live Auction. INFORMATION MEETING: Sun., May 21 after the 8:45am, 11:15am and 1:00pm Masses, in the Woodlands Room.

Birthright of Montgomery County

Birthright has moved to a new location: 2915-F Olney-Sandy Spring Rd., Olney, MD, across from St. Peter's Church. They will be open Tues. - Fri., 10:00am - 4:00pm; and Sat., 9:00am - 1:00pm. They are looking forward to continuing their pro-life work in this new location. If you are interested in volunteering at this location, they would love to speak with you. INFO: 301-570-3339

St. Rose Food Drive is Next Weekend

May 6/7. Help support St. Martin's Food Pantry, which serves hundreds of needy families each week. Distribution categories in chronic short supply: Similac baby formula (blue label), baby cereal, and disposable diapers (numbers 4, 5 and 6). Donations can be dropped off at the truck near the Church entrance before and after all Masses. Thank you for your generosity for our brothers and sisters in need.

St. Martin's Pantry Needs Adult Volunteers!

One Monday per month, volunteers are needed for The Early Morning Setup Team, 5:30am-6:30am. No Virtus clearance necessary. INFO: Patrick Burke, pjpb53@aol.com

Hope After Abortion:

Day of Prayer and Healing for Women

Have you experienced shame, sadness, regret, or guilt after abortion? You are not alone. Any woman who has gone through the abortion experience is invited to attend an Entering Canaan Day of Prayer and Healing on Sat., May 13. You will find the Sacraments, a caring retreat team, a witness talk, and a non-judgmental atmosphere that will help you to heal from shame and other negative emotions that come after abortion. The exact location is confidential due to the personal nature of this experience. INFO: Project Rachel Ministry, sponsored by the Archdiocese of Washington, 301-982-2008 or hope@adw.org. Registration is required by May 5.

Free Exhibit -

"Life of a Swiss Guard: A Private View"

Through Sun., May 21, at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, 400 Michigan Ave., NE, DC. This free exhibit reveals the daily lives of the members of the military corps that for centuries has guarded the Vatican and the pope. The exhibit contains military uniforms, armor, and ceremonial items used by the Swiss Guard. It also features the works of photographer Fabio Mantegna, who followed intermittently for two years the members of the world's oldest and continually active military. The Basilica is open daily, 7:00am-7:00pm, and offers ample free parking. It is conveniently located within walking distance of the Brookland-CUA Station on Metro's Red Line. INFO: 202-526-8300

STEWARDSHIP / CORRESPONSABILIDAD

Our Mother's Day Gift to Mary

In the beautiful new Trinity Dome at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, we see an image of the God who made us and who has the power to change us in ways that fulfill us, complete us, and make us truly happy. The dome's gorgeous mosaic depicts the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit surrounded by a procession of saints - men and women from every age of the Church - whose lives were rooted in the Catholic faith and transformed by God's love. You are invited to contribute to this work of art that celebrates our life of faith by participating in the May 14 second collection for the completion of the Trinity Dome. Learn more at www.TrinityDome.org.

Nuestro Regalo del Día de la Madre a María

En la nueva y majestuosa cúpula de la Santísima Trinidad en el Santuario Nacional de la Inmaculada Concepción, vemos una imagen del Dios que nos creó y quien tiene el poder de transformarnos de maneras que nos llenan, perfeccionan y hacen verdaderamente felices. En el maravilloso mosaico, el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo están rodeados de una procesión de santos, hombres y mujeres de todas las edades de la Iglesia, cuyas vidas arraigadas en la fe católica fueron transformados por el amor de Dios. Ustedes están invitados a contribuir a esta obra de arte que celebra nuestra vida de fe, aportando en la segunda colecta del 14 de mayo, que servirá para la completar la cúpula de la Santísima Trinidad. Más información en www.TrinityDome.org.
