True Fulfillment

All of us seem to be on an endless search to satisfy the desires of the human heart. We will do almost anything to satisfy that desire. The great human principle of life is: seek pleasure and, by all means, avoid pain. St. Augustine said: "Our hearts are restless, O God, until they rest in you."

Today, we hear Jesus tell us, "I have come that you might have life and have it to the full." Life is not to be an uninteresting, spiritless or sorrowful existence, but one that fulfills all the hopes and dreams of the human heart. Jesus was in love with life and He wanted to share that experience with all people!

We can only wonder what the Lord had in mind. To most of us, the good life typically means enough money to take care of our needs and enough time to enjoy the leisure and happiness that comes to those who work hard. But, most have very little money or time to spend with family and friends. Jesus was an itinerant preacher who did not know where his next meal would come from or where he could lay down His head. He was just taken up with the Kingdom and He was willing to pay the price to bring that good news to the world. In spite of all of His suffering and pain, rejection and what would seem to some as failure; He lived life with real vigor and charm. We would say He loved every minute of it. Even the rich young man, whose wealth did not satisfy his desire for life, was anxious to know Jesus' secret. Jesus told him: "Now go and sell all that you have and give it to the poor and then come and follow me." Scripture says: "His face fell, for he was a man of great wealth."

The good life is much more than having a good time; we know that to be true. Suffering is also a part of what it means to be alive. There are times when suffering takes up the better part of our days, weeks and even years. When we know its place, when we can accept suffering as part of life, we can understand and realize what Jesus meant by the fullness of life.

When we are happy, we say life is good. When we are unhappy, we say life is bad. Jesus would have us realize that happiness is only but a part of life - and not the main part! He did not have in mind a series of good times that would go on forever. Jesus lived a full life that was nothing like that.

Life to the full means all that God intends it to be. There are to be no limitations, no barriers to freedom, and no boundaries to its love. But, there will always be suffering, struggle, anxiety and frustration to live that life that the Good Shepherd has come to bring to each of us. We are to listen to His voice and follow in His ways.

We can easily be distracted by other voices in our world. Even though we walk through the valley of darkness, we are to know in faith that our Good Shepherd will be there. He is the only gate to Resurrection and new life. Lord, we truly trust in you!

The dome's gorgeous mosaic depicts the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit surrounded by a procession of saints - men and women from every age of the Church - whose lives were rooted in the Catholic faith and transformed by God's love. You are invited to contribute to this work of art that celebrates our life of faith by participating in the May 14 Special Collection for the completion of the Trinity Dome.
